that isn't a chance, for this is a sure thing. We are selling full-width 27-inch Silk Finish Poplins (sold everywhere at 25c a yard) for only 22c. Here is a material that can be used in making almost all kinds of summer garments. For your own dress, waist or skirt, for the children's dresses, rompers, or the infants' cape or coat. And there are few fabrics for shirtings that look or wear better than this poplin. They come in numerous different shades, which are fast. Nothing launders better than Poplin. At least see them and compare them with other materials.

street returned to-day from Randolph, where she has been spending the past few days.

R. I. Fuller of Bangor, Me., arrived in the city this forenoon to make an extended visit as the guest of friends and relatives.
Miss Alice McDonald of Granville was a visitor in the city yesterday on her way to Burlington to attend the commencement exercises at Mt. St. Mary academy this week. Miss McDonald is a graduate of that institution and will attend the annual reunion of the class.

Mrs. George Christie of Prospect street left to-day for Montreal, where she will visit for the coming few days with relatives. She will sail on the Hesperian, an Allan line steamer, for Scotland, the latter part of the week. Mrs. Christie will visit in Scotland during the summer, returning to Barre in the fall. She was accompanied by Mrs. Robert Wilson, who will also visit at Aberdeen and other points in the British Isles during the coming summer.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Don't fail to attend Fitts' dress sale.

fore taking passage on an Allan line steamer across the Atlantic to visit at her former home in Aberdeen.

T. H. Smith, one of the cemetery superintendents who has been attending the outing of the New England association in Barre during the past few days, left this forenoon for his home at Rome, N. Y.

The Italian team will be strengthened to defeat the Brattleboro team. Triggs, the clever little shortstop of Middlebury college, and Maiden, the Vermont star, will appear in the Italian lineup. Don't fail to see these teams.—Adv.

Mrs. Frank Turner of South Main street, who has been spending the past few weeks at Hartford, Conn., has returned to the city. Mrs. Turner went to Hartford last month to attend the wedding of her son, Ralph Turner, formerly of this city, and since has been visiting as his guest.

Speare, the clever little Vermont southerner, who is to twirl for the Italians on Friday against Brattleboro, gained widespread comment through his work during the past season. He is regarded as one of the best college pitchers in the game. His work will be worth watching.—Adv.

Contractor E. N. Normandeau yesterday completed his contract of erecting a new bridge across the Jail branch on the spur of track of the Barre railroad that runs to the E. C. Glysson granite plant.
Mr. Normandeau placed a force of workmen at the task several weeks ago. The new structure is comprised of solid concrete cement abutments and an I-beam bridge. The new structure replaces a wooden affair that had brooked the banks of the river for many years and which during the freshets of recent years had been rendered so insecure that the railroad officials ordered the new bridge reared in its place.
